The village of Orlík nad Vltavou is located in southern Bohemia, in the northern part of the district of Písek and on the left bank of the Vltava River and the Orlický dam. It took its name thanks to the 13th century castle, which is a cultural monument and stands on a cliff. The large English-style castle park is also beautiful. Nice surroundings, diverse possibilities for hiking, cycling, water sports and fishing. The current construction of the D4 motorway will provide excellent transport accessibility from Prague.
